REPORT OF DEPARTMENT COMMANDER.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 21, 1884.

Officers and Members of the Fifth Annual Encampment, Department of Indiana, G. A. R.:

COMRADES:—Another year's march has been made, and we have now assembled for the "inspection" and "review" of our lines, and to prepare for the campaign of another year.

When those of us, who by your suffrages and those of the former Encampment, were placed in command of this Department, shall have rendered our reports of the work that has been accomplished, let us so plan the best that can be for the future of this Department. Our work as the active officers of the Department is almost finished, and my great desire has been that when my time should expire for which I was commissioned as your Commander, that then you should feel and say the work has been well done, and that there should be no regrets on your part that you had made the choice you did at your last Encampment. I said to you in closing my first year as your Department Commander, that the Grand Army had come into Indiana to stay, and I can say now with emphasis that not only did it come to stay but it was planted to grow and multiply and increase. I am glad to say the

in the Department of Indiana during the eleven months that have intervened since last you met, has been greater, not only than in the thirteen months that elapsed between the third and fourth annual Encampments, but has been greater than in all the four years previous.

On the 28th day of March, 1883, we had Posts numbered up to 154. We now have Posts organized numbering 302, and have applications for Posts already granted numbered to 308. The membership at your last Department Encampment, March 28, 1883, was 6,088. The membership to-day, not including the musters-in since December 31, 1883, is now 13,124. This includes the Posts that have been organized since December 31, 1883. We record, then, in the past eleven months a gain of 148 Posts already organized, with more ready to be organized, and a gain of 7,036 Comrades who now gather about our peaceful camp-fires to live over the days that made us Comrades in deed and in fact. Nor is the good work yet completed, the seed has been sown in many more localities which will yet bring forth a bountiful harvest. There are now quite a large number of applications for new Posts in the hands of our former Comrades who are at work in the cause, and my successor will find applications for Posts coming in in goodly numbers.

For the complete statistical statement of our work and growth during the term just closing, I call your attention to the annual report of the Assistant Adjutant-General.

DEPARTMENT FINANCES.

As the Department has continued to grow numerically, it has in the same proportion continued to prosper financially. We closed the last year with:

Cash on hand.....	$1,663.12
Supplies and property.....	594.60

Total assets, money and property	$2,257.72
--	------------

As appears by the report of Comrade G. H. Shover, Assistant Quartermaster-General, we have received from all sources since March 28, 1883..... $13,150.64

We have expended during the same period:

For the purchase of supplies.....	5,981.57
For other necessary expenses.....	2,639.84
Per capita tax National Headquarters.....	366.89

Total expenses on account of the Department....	$8,988.30
---	------------

The Department Council of Administration at its session held on the first day of November, 1883, directed the Department Commander, Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General, to render such assistance to destitute Comrades and soldiers passing through Indianapolis as should call on Department Headquarters for relief, as in the judgment of those officers might seem fit or advisable. Under that order of the Council there has been expended the sum of $56.05.

There is now in the hands of Assistant Quartermaster-General:

Cash.....	$4,106.29
Supplies and property of the Department Reported at cost value.....	689.03

Total.....	$4,795.32
------------	------------

AID FOR THE FLOOD SUFFERERS.

In connection with the question of finances, I deem it proper to state what has been done in the matter of aid for the Comrades along the Ohio river.

The terrible flood that overwhelmed our Comrades during the month of February, 1883, has been repeated during the present month with even more disastrous effects than the flood of 1883. Our Comrades who met with the terrible calamity of 1883 had not yet fully recovered from that awful disaster when the more awful flood of 1884 came pouring down upon and over them. When the cry for help began to be heard as this new trouble came, I issued a call to the Posts of this Department for aid, believing that the call would be answered, and our Posts would not permit the Comrades in distress to appeal to them in vain. Nor was I mistaken in this. From all parts of this Department the Comrades, individually and as Posts, have been responding in true soldierly sympathy, each sending in their contributions as they were able. I directed that all money should be sent to the Assistant Quartermaster-General, G. H. Shover, to be distributed through the various Posts in the flooded districts as the necessities of the case might demand. There has now been sent in for this relief fund the sum of $1,373.60, and more will probably follow. This fund is kept separate and distinct from all other Department funds.

But a small portion of this fund has as yet been paid out, as is shown by the Quartermaster's report.

I have been advised by Comrades in the flooded districts that it was best to hold these funds in reserve until the floods should subside, and then to apply them in the way of assistance in aiding our Comrades to rebuild or repair their homes. I was also advised by relief committees, and by the Governor of our State, who had visited the flooded districts, that an abundance of food was being provided by donations from citizens throughout this State, and by the United States Government, and that the greatest need was to be financial aid in rebuilding and repairing the desolated or ruined homes, and in aiding the people to provide means for commencing the work of springtime. So, acting upon the advice of these men who had been over the territory, the money has, for the most part, been retained for that purpose. In addition to the sums already contributed by the various Posts herein referred to, I think this Encampment should also set apart a liberal and reasonable amount which might be used to aid our Comrades in the flooded country if it should be found necessary. Comrades of this Encampment should know, if you do not already know it, that we have some twenty Posts within this flood line, and that although the amount contributed by the Posts seems liberal, yet when it is divided among so many Posts the amount to each is small, and then to again divide it among the members of a Post, it is so small that nothing scarcely can be accomplished. Some action should be taken by this Encampment for the distribution of these funds. I therefore make the following recommendation :

That a committee of three be appointed by this Encampment, whose duty it shall be to correspond with, or visit, the Commanders of the Posts which have suffered from the flood, and ascertain the necessities of the Comrades or honorably discharged soldiers in each locality, and that after said committee has ascertained the facts, it shall then apportion all the money that has been or may be received, to the different Posts pro rata according to their numbers in need of such aid. When the committee has so apportioned the amount to be paid to each Post, they shall report the same to the Quartermaster of this Department, and that officer, on receiving said statement, shall at once send the amount allotted to each Post to the Post Commander and Quartermaster thereof, to be by them distributed to the Comrades in need. This committee should be composed of Comrades who could, if required, visit the locality and inquire into the necessities of the separate Posts, and should be situated near together so as to be able to see or communicate with one another without delaying unnecessarily the sending of relief when required.

STATE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' MONUMENT.

Comrades, in my report as Department Commander at the last annual Encampment, I called your attention to the importance of erecting a State monument to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of this State. I can not say more as to the importance of this work than I did at that time. The funds should be raised for this purpose, and it can be done. Since our last Encampment a broader and deeper interest has been taken in the matter. The public press of the State has, almost without a single exception, taken the matter up and has advocated the building of this monument. The universally-expressed opinion is that the task of raising the funds should be under the charge and supervision of the Grand Army of the Republic of this Department. Quite a number of subscriptions have been made for this purpose. The Soldiers' Monumental Association, a body that was organized by some of the patriotic citizens of this State, and that had collected some money for that purpose, has, through its president, sent me the following communication :

*Gen. James R. Carnahan, Department Commander
Grand Army of the Republic, Indianapolis, Ind.:*

DEAR SIR:—I respectfully transmit to you the following proceedings of the Executive Committee of the State Soldiers' Monumental Association of which I am chairman. They sufficiently explain themselves :

WHEREAS, The State Soldiers' Monumental Association, through which, starting out as it did with such enthusiasm and such substantial support, it was confidentially expected that a suitable monument would speedily be erected to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of the State who served in the Union Army during the war of the Rebellion, or have been or may be buried in this State, was dissipated by the great financial crisis which followed its organization, and has failed in the accomplishment of its purposes ;

AND WHEREAS, There is in the treasury of the association, under the control of John W. Ray, the treasurer, $1,200, or thereabouts ;

AND WHEREAS, A new organization has been created under the name of the Soldiers' Monumental Association of Indiana, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic, through which it is proposed to provide the means and erect such monument ;

AND WHEREAS, It is believed that through this organization, conducted as it is by the Comrades of the gallant dead, and of their survivors as well, whose memories it is proposed to honor, the end in view will more speedily and more certainly be accomplished ;

Therefore, We, the Executive Committee of said State Soldiers' and Sailors' Monumental Association, do hereby transfer and turn over to the proper officers representing said Department of Indiana of the Grand Army of the Republic, the said funds in the treasury as aforesaid for the purpose only of erecting such monument, and John W. Ray, the treasurer, is directed to pay over the same to such officers of the new association as may be entitled to demand and receive the same.

The committee, as such and as individuals, express the hope that, under more favorable auspices, and by the aid of the Department of the Grand Army of the Republic, the current year will witness the accumulation of the necessary funds, and the commencement, if not the completion of the work.

J. B. JULIAN, GEO. J. LANGSDALE,
A. D. STREIGHT, FRANK ERDLEMEYER,

Committee.

Sincerely wishing that in the very appropriate hands of the Grand Army of the Republic this noble work will receive such encouragement from the people of the State as will insure its prompt commencement and speedy completion, I am
Yours, etc.,

J. B. JULIAN,
Chairman.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 15, 1884.

Under the system that was adopted by the Council of Administration and reported at our last meeting, we have not been able to accomplish very much, and the whole matter has been at a stand-still. This Encampment should reorganize the system heretofore adopted, by selecting a committee to be known as the Soldiers' Monumental Committee, and the whole matter of the Soldiers' Monument should be placed in the hands of that committee. The first thing to be done, however, by this Encampment, should be to incorporate this body under the laws of Indiana, so that it shall have a legal existence. Having done this, we can then receive funds that have already been tendered or subscribed, and will be in a position to act in a legal way. The Monumental Committee should report to the annual Encampment concerning all its transactions, and should have no other authority than to raise and receive the funds for the monument, making such arrangements to that end as may be by them deemed advisable. Comrades, if this plan is adopted at once and the work is pushed systematically, I believe we can, at the next Department Encampment, have a large portion of the funds raised for the erection of a monument that will be a just tribute to the memory of the Indiana soldiers in the war for the preservation of the Union.

I present herewith articles of incorporation for the Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic for your consideration, and subject, of course, to any alteration or amendment that you may deem advisable. I present them with my report in order that we may economize the time, and hasten, not unduly, however, the business of this Encampment. If these articles should be adopted, you should at once select your Monumental Committee. Or if it is deemed best to proceed under the present organization, clothe that committee with discretionary and full power to conduct the work of raising the funds:

Articles of Incorporation of the Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic.

The persons whose names are hereunto subscribed have entered into a voluntary Association under the laws of the State of Indiana made and provided.

The name of the Association and body corporate shall be "The Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic."

PURPOSES.

1. The purposes of this Association are of a benevolent and charitable character in accordance with the principles of the Grand Army of the Republic, and are more fully expressed as follows, viz.:

To assist such former comrades in arms as need help and protection, and to extend needful aid to the widows and orphans of those who have fallen.

To maintain true allegiance to the United States of America, based upon a paramount respect for, and fidelity to, the National Constitution and laws, to discountenance whatever tends to weaken loyalty, incites to insurrection, treason or rebellion, or in any manner impairs the efficiency and permanency of our free institutions; and to encourage the spread of universal liberty, equal rights and justice to all men.

2. Another and distinct object of this Association is for the purpose of receiving subscriptions and voluntary contributions for the purpose of erecting a suitable monument to the memory of the soldiers and sailors of Indiana who participated in the Union army and navy in the war for the suppression of the Rebellion; and as soon as sufficient subscriptions and donations shall have been received for the erection of such a monument, then to locate the site for, and erect said monument.

SONS OF VETERANS.

I present with this, my report, certain resolutions of F. D. Matthews Post No. 108, at Ellettsville, endorsing and recommending to the favorable consideration of this Encampment the Order known as the Sons of Veterans. The resolutions will be read in their order by the Assistant Adjutant-General. I most heartily recommend that the organizing of Camps of the Sons of Veterans be encouraged within this Department. I think that the Grand Army of the Republic should encourage the teachings of the principle of loyalty in every way possible, and it strikes me that if we can bring our sons into organizations that cause them to remember the deeds of the Union soldier, and venerate his memory, we need not fear to leave the future of our country in the hands of our sons.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

I am glad to report that many of our Posts are now beginning to take steps towards the organization of the Woman's Relief Corps in this Department, and I trust that, during the coming year, we shall see this noble and worthy auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic fully established in this Department. It has accomplished much, very much, good in other Departments, and I am convinced will do the same in this.

R. E. LEE CAMP, CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

I have received, as have most of the Posts in this Department, a circular and call for aid for destitute Confederate soldiers, issued by R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, of Richmond, Va. I commend the call to the favorable consideration of the Posts of this Department. Comrades, the time is fast approaching when all the animosities of the late war will be a thing of the past. In fact, I believe the day has already come when the men who bore the part of brave soldiers, enduring the hardships of the march and the bivouac, and face to face met each other on the fields of battle, and have lived through battles lost and battles won, now are looking at the gallantry of those who participated, more than at the cause for which they fought. I think it well, Comrades, now that the victors should heed the cry that comes from the vanquished, and, as we be one people, living under one government, we should, by all means in our power, by kindness, by charity in word and deed, do all we can to make loyalty a vital principle throughout the entire length and breadth of the land, and in the hearts and minds of all the inhabitants thereof. The truly brave soldier will heed the call for help when it comes from one who once was a brave and manly foe.

IN MEMORIAM.

Comrades, we are reminded from time to time that our ranks are gradually but surely falling away. During the time that has passed since our last annual Encampment, thirty-six of the Comrades of the Grand Army in this Department have ceased to answer to the roll-call here below, and have joined the ranks of those who have entered into their rest.

“Flung to the viewless winds,
Or, on the waters cast,
Their ashes shall be watched
And gathered at the last;
While from their scattered dust,
Around us and abroad
Shall spring a precious seed
Of witnesses for God.”

NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT, 1883 AND 1884.

The National Encampment of 1883, which met at Denver, Colorado, was one of unusual interest, both in the large number of delegates assembled there and in the business transacted. The proceedings of that Encampment have been distributed to each Post in this Department, and I call the attention of Post Commanders and the Comrades generally to these printed proceedings. This Department was not, as it should have been, fully represented by the delegates who were elected to represent it, by our last Encampment. Other Departments, not entitled to as large a representation as Indiana, were more largely represented, because all of the representatives were there. Comrades, I would not be just to this Department if I said less than this—that no Comrade should accept the position of a delegate unless he fully intends to attend, and, if he, after election, finds that circumstances have arisen that will prevent his attendance, then he should notify Department Headquarters, so that his alternate can be notified in time to make his arrangements to attend. Indiana is now numbered among the strong Departments, and at the National Encampment of 1884, which meets at Minneapolis, Minn., the time not yet definitely fixed, we will be entitled to a delegate representation of thirteen, to be chosen by this Encampment, in addition to your officers and past officers named by the Rules and Regulations, and I trust that Comrades who are chosen this year will feel, if they take the position tendered them, that it is with the full understanding that they will be present. I assure you, Comrades, that it is no empty honor. You are chosen to represent a Department that to-day is looked upon with more than ordinary respect by other Departments. If this Encampment honors you by electing you, you should honor the Department by attending and representing it in our National Councils. I have spoken thus plainly and frankly, Comrades, on this subject, because I have a love and pride in and for this Department.

DEPARTMENT WORK.

The work in the Assistant Adjutant-General's and Assistant Quartermaster-General's offices has increased so rapidly that now the office of either Assistant Adjutant-General or Assistant Quartermaster-General is one of constant work. This can readily be understood if you will but look how rapidly this Department has grown in the past two years. When the present Department officers were elected, February 22, 1882, we had 43 active Posts and 2,050 members. At our last Encampment, March 28, 1883, we had 154 Posts and 6,088 members. We now have 302 Posts already organized, and a membership of 13,124, not including those that have been mustered into the Posts since December 31, 1883, and not yet reported. Now this requires constant work in the way of correspondence on the part of the Department Commander, the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General. Of course the work of the correspondence, the making up of the reports, etc., falls the heaviest upon the Assistant Adjutant-General. Comrade House has devoted his entire time to the duties of the office during the past year. His work has been done faithfully and well. He was not able to perform all the work at times, and I directed him to procure temporary assistance, and have approved the bills therefor, believing that, out of the small amount allowed him, he should not be required to pay it himself. The work of the Assistant Quartermaster has increased to a correspondingly great extent. No additional compensation has been made for the Assistant Adjutant-General, and it stands just where it was fixed four years ago. I would therefore recommend that the salary of the Assistant Adjutant-General should be increased so as to make his pay commensurate with the work performed. I also recommend that the salary of the Assistant Quartermaster-General should be increased. He has more work than he can perform without neglecting his own business to too great an extent. And, beside all this, he is responsible now for a large sum of money, and must needs keep on hand a large amount of property of the Department.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

During the present official year it has been my pleasure, as well as the pleasure of many of the Comrades to welcome the Commander-in-Chief, R. B. Beath, on two different occasions, to our Department. His earnest words of advice, and his cheering and encouraging expressions, served to stimulate all who heard him to greater work in the cause of Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty. I only regret that all of the Comrades did not have the pleasure of meeting him, and that he could not have been with us here to-day.

POLITICS IN THE GRAND ARMY.

Comrades, I can not add to what I said in my address to you last year on the subject of partisan politics. I only wish to call your attention once more to what was then said; and, for the good of our Order, for the sake of its perpetuity, in the name of all the good that has been accomplished for our Comrades by the Order, for the hope of all the greater good that may yet be accomplished by it, in memory of the delightful reunions we have enjoyed in our Post-rooms, keep partisan politics out of the Grand Army of the Republic. We are soon to enter on another State and National political contest, and, I beseech you, guard well our Order. Outside your Post, and separated from the Grand Army, be as strong party men as you desire—this is your privilege, and none have a greater right to this privilege than the Union soldier. But let the Post-room be sacred ground, and keep from it every political tendency. Let your acts as Grand Army men be entirely separate and distinct from all political matters. We be Comrades all, and such we should and will remain.

I especially enjoin upon Post Commanders the importance of this matter, and charge you one and all that you guard well your out-posts, that naught shall pass within your lines to bring dissension within your own ranks or those of other Posts. I believe you will do this, and, if it is done, all will be well. If any other course is pursued, I believe disaster and ruin will overtake us.

THANKS.

In closing this my second term of service as your Department Commander, I can but express my gratitude to the Comrades of this Department who now for two years have given me their confidence, their warm expressions of fraternity; have answered in charities unstinted, and with such loyalty to the cause of the Grand Army of the Republic that they responded to every call I have made on them. In my visitations to Posts in all parts of the Department, I have met with nothing but the most cordial greetings. At your camp-fires I have seen naught but cheerful faces of Comrades, and the smiles of their wives and little ones. I trust that I may in the future, as a private member of the Grand Army of the Republic, have the pleasure of meeting you often about your peaceful camp-fires, to renew the friendships and comradeships of other days, or to live over the scenes through which each may have passed, and thus sharing one another's experience in the past, we may the more firmly unite ourselves in a comradeship that may be an eternity in duration.

I can not name now all the Comrades who have during the past year given me special aid; but it is due that special mention should be made of Senior Vice Department Commander Nicar, Junior Vice-Commander Hendricks, Department Inspector Wooden, Chief Mustering Officer Dougall; Comrades Iliff, of Post 55; David and Stokes, of Post 17; Veach, of Post 123; Whitsett, of Post 26; Vandewalker, of Post 145. I speak of these Comrades especially, because the calls upon them have been so numerous, and requiring so much of their time, and they have responded whenever called upon with such cheerful promptness.

To the Council of Administration I return my unqualified and heart-felt thanks for their cordial and earnest support in my endeavors to build up this Department. They and each of them, both in word and deed, have given me their full and sincere cooperation. I shall ever bear in remembrance their cheerful faces, and more cheerful and encouraging words, as we came together to consult for the welfare of this Department.

To each individual member of my staff, I do in most sincere words, return my thanks for their work and labor, so faithfully performed during the term of office just now closing.

Comrades all, in conclusion, let me bespeak for my successor, when by your suffrages he shall be chosen, the same earnest and hearty support you have accorded to me. We have now a Department of the Grand Army of which we may well be proud. You have each helped to make it what it is; and proud indeed should be the Comrade who is called to command and direct it. No hero of old ever commanded so noble a band of men; no army ever was worthy so true and loyal a leader and commander as should be yours.

In this our convention, let Fraternity in word, in feeling, in action, rule the hours. May Charity towards each and all abound, and Loyalty to one another, and to the welfare of the Grand Army, be the key-stone that shall bind and hold us ever together in a union stronger than that of brothers; a union that can only be named in its highest, broadest, best and truest name—when we say, COMRADES.

Fraternally, in F., C. & L.,

Report of Assistant Adjutant-General.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA,

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,

OFFICE OF ASSISTANT ADJUTANT-GENERAL,

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., February 19, 1884.

James R. Carnahan, Department Commander:

SIR AND COMRADE:—I have the honor to submit herewith a synopsis of the business transacted by the Assistant Adjutant-General's office, Department of Indiana Grand Army of the Republic, from March 29, 1883, to date, as set forth hereinafter, and abstracts accompanying.

The report of the proceedings of the last Department Encampment was published as soon as possible after the completion of its work, and two copies mailed to each Post in existence at that time; and Posts since organized have been supplied with the same. Considerable delay in the publication of the roster was necessitated from the fact that information required for its completion was not promptly furnished by several Post officers. When published, however, it is believed to have been of a very complete character.

Eight General Orders and one supplement to General Order No. 8, and two circulars, have been issued from Department Headquarters, copies of which are filed herewith.

Posts have been organized, during the present administration, numbering from 156 to 307, inclusive. Date of muster, by whom mustered, location, etc., will be found fully set forth in abstract "A," accompanying this report.

The comparative gains by Posts will be found set forth in abstract "B."

Abstract "C" will show the names of those reported as having died within the year, and the Posts to which they belonged.

The rapid growth of the Order within the year has greatly increased the work of the Assistant Adjutant-General. The courtesy of correspondence compels a large amount of writing not strictly of an official character, i. e. not pertaining to the workings of the Order—letters of inquiry as to individuals, etc. It has been my endeavor to answer promptly and to the point, all communications demanding a reply.

The wisdom of procuring a case for the storing of blanks recommended by the Assistant Quartermaster-General in his last report, has been amply proven, it having been made divisible, and its upper half utilized in the office of the Assistant Adjutant-General.

In view of the financial condition of the Department, and the fact that it has never been, since its organization, to any expense for office purposes in the way of rent or furniture, I would recommend that my successor be authorized to purchase a desk suitable for the purposes of his office.

The following Posts have ceased to exist: No. 58, Harmony; No. 197, North Liberty; No. 101, Monon; No. 118, Boyleston.

Post No. 78, at Muncie, in a state of suspended animation, has been fully revived and is in good working condition.

The number of members in this Department, as shown by report of December 31, 1883.....12,575
Against (reported December 31, 1882,)..... 6,088
Membership of Posts organized since December 31, 1883. 549
Gain since December 31, 1882..... 7,036
Total membership to date.....13,124

Abstract "D" will show the amount and character of supplies in the office of the Assistant Adjutant-General, with cost value thereof.

Of the financial condition of the Department, the figures are the best possible eulogy.

The Department receipts from all sources have been $13,150 64

Total expenditures 9,044 35

Cash on hand $4,106 29
Supplies, badges, etc..... 689 03
Balance due from Monumental Fund..... 203 60
Received since February 19..... 64 36

Total assets $5,063 28

In closing my fourth annual report of this Department Grand Army of the Republic, permit me here to repeat the thanks heretofore expressed to all with whom I have come in official or personal contact, for the uniform kindness and forbearance with which my efforts have been met by all those whose servant in this cause I have been.

To yourself I need not say that the personal friendship and esteem expressed in my last report has not waned during the past year.

BEN D. HOUSE.

Assistant Adjutant-General.

General Orders—Series 1883-84.

GEN. ORDER, }
 No. I. }

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF INDIANA, G. A. R.,
 OFFICE OF THE COMMANDER,
 INDIANAPOLIS, MARCH 29, 1883.

I. The fourth Annual Encampment of this Department having re-elected me to the office of Department Commander, I hereby assume command for the year upon which the Department has just entered, with Headquarters at Indianapolis.

II. Comrades, once more entering upon my duties as your Commander, I thank you one and all for the confidence and fraternal feeling you have shown towards me. Fully realizing the importance of the work that will devolve on me for the present year in accepting the trust you have again placed in my hands, and its responsibility, I shall continue the work, which you would not permit me to lay down, with all the zeal that can come from sincere devotion to our Order. Comrades, remember that I can not do the work alone. There must be a united and systematic "attack along the entire line," and that attack must be a continuous "charge" through each day, and at night one unbroken line of "camp-fires," around which the Comrades may gather, and within whose light and warmth we shall not only rest and refresh ourselves, but shall plan for greater victories when the "reveille" shall sound.

III. Department officers can not fail to understand that the Encampment selected them for active campaign work—field service, and not for "dress parade," and the Department Commander will, and does confidently expect from your reports, not of occasional victories, but victories every day. Each officer of the Department will be furnished with blank applications for new Posts, and for recruits for their own Posts, and these Headquarters will confidently expect these applications to be filled.

IV. Post Commanders and the Comrades, one and all, are expected to use every effort to build up their Posts, and aid in gathering the soldiers of the Union into our Post-rooms. If there is an officer of any Post in this Department who has not the love of the Grand Army sufficiently at heart, or can not work for the recruiting of his Post, he should, at once, give place to some Comrade who will work. Every Post in this Department should double its membership this year, and add one new Post to the roster of this Department. You can,—will you do it? Which Post will be the first to show the fruits of their work by sending in an application for the organization of a Post to be added to the numbers of this Department?

V. Every Comrade, or Post, that sends in an application for a new Post, as the result of his or its work, will be published in General Orders; and the Commanders of Posts are hereby ordered to send to these Headquarters, at the close of each quarter, the name of the Comrade who has brought the greatest number of recruits, during the quarter, into his Post, stating the number, for mention in General Orders. Once more I say, let this be a year of zealous work for Fraternity, Charity and Loyalty in and for the Grand Army of the Republic in this Department.

JAMES R. CARNAHAN,
Commander Department of Indiana.

In closing my labors as Assistant Quartermaster-General, permit me to return thanks to the Quartermasters of the Posts throughout the Department, for their kindness and forbearance with which my efforts to do my duty have been met, and to all with whom I have come in official contact—for I can not call to mind any unpleasant meeting. To yourself personally, I want to say the relations have been of the most pleasant kind, and made the tie of friendship stronger than ever.

G. H. SHOVER,
Assistant Quartermaster-General.

On motion it was ordered that members shall present the name of one Comrade from each Congressional District, to compose a committee, who shall submit to this Encampment the names of thirteen Comrades as delegates and thirteen as alternates to the next annual National Encampment.

A recess was then taken until 1:30 P. M.

The Department Commander called the Encampment to order.

In response to an invitation by Department Commander Carnahan, Senior Vice Department Commander Nicar, assisted by the officers and a number of the Comrades of Auten Post No. 8 exemplified the ritualistic and unwritten ceremonies of muster in a very superior manner.

The regular business was then resumed, and Department Inspector J. L. Wooden submitted, his report, which was referred to the following committee: Comrades Hawley, Cone and Seward.

REPORT OF DEPARTMENT INSPECTOR.

HEADQUARTERS GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

INSPECTOR'S OFFICE,

GREENSBURG, INDIANA, February 21, 1884.

Col. Ben D. House, Assistant Adjutant-General:

COMRADE:—I have the honor to submit the following report for the year ending December 31, 1883:

The general condition of our Order in this Department is very flattering and full of promise for the future.

A large majority of Post Commanders have responded to General Order No. 6, Department Headquarters, November 2, 1883, or circular letter, Inspector's office, January 1, 1884, in recommending competent Comrades for Assistant Inspectors of Posts, but I am sorry to say that a few have neglected to do so.

Assistant Inspectors, in the main, have discharged their duties well, some very thoroughly, and their reports will be of great service to the officers who may be selected to serve the Department the ensuing year.

I respectfully suggest that same plan be adopted for instruction in the Ritual and unwritten work of the Order. Where these are well performed, the Posts are zealous and prosperous, the reverse being the case where they are imperfectly rendered.

I further suggest that the State be divided into inspection districts, and that the Department Commander appoint Assistant Department Inspectors for such districts, who shall have supervision of the inspection and general interests of the Order in their several districts, under the orders and instructions of the Department Inspector, and that the Department Encampment allow the Department Inspector compensation commensurate with the work performed.

A reference to the accompanying tabular statement will show the general condition of the Order. The Inspector's report for the year ending December 31, 1882, showed one hundred and forty-six Posts, with sixty-four inspection returns. I herewith report two hundred and seventy-two Posts and two hundred and eight inspection returns, a gain of one hundred and twenty-two Posts, and a gain of thirty-three per cent. in inspection returns.

In conclusion, I desire to return my sincere thanks to the Department Commander, the members of his staff, the Assistant Inspectors and Comrades generally, for their uniform kindness. I also wish to call especial attention to the prompt, correct and courteous conduct of the business of the offices of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General.

Respectfully submitted,

In F., C. and L.,

J. L. WOODEN,
Department Inspector.

Annual Report of the Inspector of the Department of Indiana G. A. R., for the year ending December 31, 1883.

Department Chaplain J. M. Whitehead presented his report, which was referred to the Assistant Adjutant-General.

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

The Assistant Adjutant-General, to whom was referred the report of the Department Chaplain, would respectfully report that he finds that that officer performed a large amount of labor, showing his deep interest in the workings of the Grand Army of the Republic. He submitted a tabulated report, which, owing to the fact that the information therein contained is embodied in the reports of Assistant Adjutant-General and the Department Inspector, it is not thought best to publish in extenso. His inquiries elicited the fact that Memorial Day was generally observed in a manner in keeping with the occasion, and that religious services were largely attended, either upon the Sabbath prior to or subsequent to that day, upon which occasions the services were appropriate to the season and character of the special attendance.

In the opinion of the Assistant Adjutant-General, Chaplain Whitehead has filled the position to which elected in a manner to honor his office and the Department.

BEN D. HOUSE,
Assistant Adjutant-General.

The Department Commander appointed the following named Comrades a committee on resolutions: Jesse Neff, Post No. 42, H. C. Allen, Post No. 17, Chas. H. Myerhoff, Post No. 27.

Comrade O. R. Beebe offered the following, which was, on motion, unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It has come to the knowledge of this Department Grand Army of the Republic, in Encampment now assembled, that for some time in the past in the public schools of this our capital city, Indianapolis, that so much of the history of our country as relates to the war of the Rebellion has been neglected or ignored in the curriculum of historical study; therefore,

Resolved, That we, the ex-soldiers of the war for the Union, do most emphatically condemn the course pursued, as by no means flattering to those of us who still survive, and as nothing less than a direct insult to the memory of our dead comrades. That as an expression of our feelings we pass this resolution and spread the same upon the records of our Department.

Comrade C. Krietenstein, Post No. 1, offered the following, which, on motion, was adopted :

Resolved, That we urgently request our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use all honorable means to secure the passage of the Equalization Bounty bill.

The following resolutions were offered and referred to the Committee on Resolutions :

By Comrade H. F. Underwood, Post No. 56.

DEPARTMENT ENCAMPMENT,
GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC,
February 21, 1884.

WHEREAS, The said Department business is of necessity transacted at the City of Indianapolis, and that by Representatives, Post Commanders and Past Post Commanders of the several Posts in the Department ; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the railroad fare to said Encampment be paid out of the funds of said Department, on the basis of two and one-half cents per mile from each Post, respectively, to Indianapolis the shortest route and return.

H. F. UNDERWOOD, Post 56.

J. E. GRAHAM, Post 40.

E. H. CASE, Post 140.

PERRY WILSON, Post 19.

R. C. FOOR, Post 112.

J. Q. MCILVAIN, Post 59.

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report :

We, your committee, to whom was referred the above resolution, respectfully report that to pay the expenses of such numbers as are authorized to attend the Encampment would exhaust the funds in the treasury, and we recommend that it do not pass.

JESSE NEFF,

H. C. ALLEN,

CHARLES MEYERHOFF.

On motion, this report was referred back to the committee, and the following report subsequently rendered :

We, your committee, to whom the within resolution was referred, would, on account of the importance of the question involved, respectfully recommend that the same be referred to the Council of Administration for final action.

JESSE NEFF,
H. C. ALLEN,
CHARLES MEYERHOFF.

On motion, the report of the committee was adopted, and the Council of Administration ordered to report at this Encampment.

Alois O. Backman, Post Madison :

WHEREAS, A period of twenty-three years has elapsed since the beginning of the war for the suppression of the Rebellion ; and

WHEREAS, There are many Union soldiers yet living who participated in the late war, risking their lives, their fortunes, and their all to aid in suppressing a rebellion, the most gigantic the world has ever known ; therefore Resolved, 1. By this Post that we ask and demand of the present Congress their immediate and united action in securing the enactment of laws during its present session that will secure to each and every honorably discharged soldier, or their legal representatives, a proper appreciation of their services.

Resolved, 2. That every Union soldier is entitled to, and claims a land-warrant for one hundred and sixty acres of land, to be placed upon any of the public lands belonging to the United States of America, at the time of the passage of said law, and said warrant be made transferable.

Resolved, 3. That the lands forfeited and likely to be forfeited by railroad corporations, by reason of their failure to comply with the requirements of the law, should immediately become available to settlers, and subject to soldiers' land-warrants, thereby preventing foreign syndicates from buying same for speculation.

Resolved, 4. The widows of all soldiers whose names are borne upon the pension-rolls at the time of the said soldier's death, receive a pension of ten dollars per month, regardless of the cause of the death of the said soldier, and that the said pension continue to said widow until she re-marry, then if there is a minor child or children, that they shall receive the same until they attain the age of sixteen years.

Resolved, 5. That the section of the law requiring pension claimants to prove physical soundness at the time of enlistment, is burdensome and wrong, as the fact of acceptance by the Government is prima facie evidence of physical soundness; therefore we recommend that the clause requiring such proof be repealed.

Resolved, 6. That we are determined to watch the action of our Representatives in Congress in regard to the aforesaid resolutions, and see if they are inclined to do us justice; and Resolved, 7. That we regard an action to postpone as equivalent to a vote against us.

Resolved, 8. That this Post forward at once, copies of this preamble to the Congressmen from this district, to each Senator from Indiana, and to the chairman of the Committee on Finance; also to the chairman of the Committee on Public Lands, Washington City, D. C.

The Committee on Resolutions rendered the following report:

We, your committee to whom was referred the foregoing resolutions, would most respectfully recommend that Sections 4 and 5 pass, and that the balance of said resolutions be not adopted.

JESSE NEFF,
H. C. ALLEN,
CHAS. H. MYERHOFF.

Which report of committee was adopted.

By Comrade P. T. Matthews, Post No. 108:

The committee rendered the following report:

We, your committee, to whom was referred the foregoing report, respectfully recommend that the same be not passed, as its passage would be a reflection on the Posts.

JESSE NEFF,

H. C. ALLEN,

Report of committee adopted.

By Comrade G. J. Langsdale:

Resolved, That the record of the war is made up, and the effort to reverse that record by reinstating in the army those who failed to obey orders and were court-martialed and punished therefor, as in the case of Fitz John Porter, is an insult to President Lincoln, the members of the court, and to soldiers living and dead who never failed to obey orders, or in their duty to the old flag.

We, your committee to whom was referred the foregoing resolution, would recommend the adoption of the same.

The Auditing Committee from the Council of Administration, to whom was referred the reports of Assistant Adjutant-General House and Assistant Quartermaster-General Shover, submitted the following, which was concurred in:

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Feb'y 21, 1884.

To the Officers and Members of the Department of Indiana, Grand Army of the Republic:

We, your committee to whom was referred the reports of the Assistant Adjutant-General and the Assistant Quartermaster-General, would respectfully report that we have examined the books and vouchers and find the reports of those officers correct. We also find that the books of each of those officers are well kept. That the interest of the Department has been materially enhanced by the incessant labors of our Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General. And we are thoroughly satisfied that the salaries paid those officers is not commensurate with the labors necessary to be performed. We also find that the expenses of our Department Commander, Gen. Carnahan, has only cost us for the past year, the moderate sum of $56.50, and that the expense of Assistant Adjutant-General and Assistant Quartermaster-General have been exceedingly small. All of which should receive our hearty commendation.

Respectfully submitted in F., C. and L.,

J. L. WOODEN,
WILL. D. MCCULLOUGH,
HARRY M. DEAN.

Committee.

The Committee on Credentials presented the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee to whom were referred the credentials, would report that the Commander of Post No. 3 claims an error in certificate, in placing W. F. Renbry on the list, in place of W. B. Gregory, and asks to be allowed to correct the list as above.

Comrade R. S. Robertson from the committee appointed at the last Department Encampment on the conduct of the Knightstown Soldiers' Orphan Home, submitted the following which was unanimously adopted and the Assistant Adjutant-General instructed to have the same published in all the papers in the State that are willing to publish it:

INDIANAPOLIS, February 21st, 1884.

The committee to whom was referred the subject of the Soldiers' Orphan Home, at Knightstown, respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and beg leave to say that they made investigations as to the legality of the diversion of the funds and property of the Soldiers' Home for the use of an asylum for feeble-minded children, and find that it is the fact that the land and original buildings were purchased for this institution, by contributions from the people of this State, voluntarily made. That the State took charge of this Home, and supported and supplied it while occupied by the disabled soldiers. That during this time a branch of this institution was occupied for the care and education of soldiers' orphans. That when the soldiers were removed to the National Home at Dayton, Ohio, the institution was filled with their orphans. That it continued to be so filled until the year 1879, when an act was passed by the Legislature by which an asylum for feeble-minded children was established and set up in the Soldiers' Orphans' Home. At that time the institution was full of soldiers' orphans, with one hundred and nineteen (119) applications pending for admission. That since then, these soldiers' orphans have been crowded out, or forbidden entrance, in large numbers. That in the year 1882, although the number of soldiers' orphans had increased, the number of them in the Home was only one hundred and forty (140), while there were eighty-one (81) idiots in the institution. In this year, 1883, the number of orphans was one hundred and forty-three (143) and seventy-nine (79) idiots. Of the orphans, thirty were taken from the institution and bound out as apprentices during the latter year.

We find that the capacity of the institution is about three hundred, and believe that it is not great enough to accommodate the soldiers' orphans, saying nothing of their widows, who are also entitled to admission there, and who have never had, as a class, the benefits of this institution.

We at first contemplated litigation to test the constitutionality of the law placing these idiots in the Home, and further testing the legality of the act diverting the institution and its property from the original purpose. But upon further consideration, and in view of the difficulties arising in making a test case, concluded that such were the glaring defects in the law, and such the probable delays and expenses in litigation, that legislation would be preferable.

The committee are of the opinion that the law needs amendment, at least in the following particulars:

First—The entire separation of the soldiers' orphans and widows from the idiots, and the taking of the latter class away from the Home.

Second—The repeal of that clause in the Statute which provides that the soldiers' orphans may be indentured and bound out as apprentices, to any one, in the discretion of the officers of the Home. That the present provision of law which authorizes these officers to exact a pledge or promise from the guardian or parent of the child to permit this binding out, is unworthy of a liberal and grateful people.

Third—That provision should be made by the next Legislature for the indigent widows of soldiers at the Home.

Fourth—That the law providing only for the orphans and widows of Indiana soldiers, should be amended, and the benefits of this institution extended to the widows and orphans of all soldiers of the Union from any State or Territory, resident in good faith in this State.

Fifth—We further recommend that the institution be enlarged so as to accommodate all who are indigent and worthy of this most meritorious class of our fellow-citizens.

We further recommend that the various Posts of the Grand Army consider this subject, and take such measures as to secure the election of a Governor and Legislature who will co-operate with the Grand Army in this work, cheerfully and cordially.

JOHN COBURN,
R. S. ROBERTSON,
THOMAS HANNA,
Committee.

At the Camp-fire in the evening the Glee Club from Auten Post No. 8, of South Bend, sang a number of songs in such a manner as to win the enthusiastic applause of the audience, and to make this organization the chief feature of the evening.

Lieutenant-Governor Comrade Thomas Hanna delivered the following address:

Governor Hanna's Welcome.

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Grand Army of the Republic:

It gives me pleasure to extend to you words of welcome and good cheer to this annual Encampment of your Department. The soldiers of the Union were always received with welcome and a hearty good will by the citizens of our capitol city. When your regiments left here in 1861-65, with every boy in blue in his place, his step firm, a proud look on his face, marching to the front to the music of "John Brown," your illustrious war Governor entrusted to you the good name and fame of your State. You were given a parting blessing by the loyal people of Indiana that God might speed you and keep you in the great and good work of maintaining the flag and perpetuating the Union. When you returned after your enlistment had expired, your ranks thinned, emaciated and battle-scarred, always bearing the old flag unfurled, then the great Morton greeted you with a royal welcome. You were greeted by all with words of encouragement and love, though often mixed with tears of sorrow for those who did not return. I trust you may have many such meetings as this. May the day be not far distant when you shall be called here to unveil a monument to the fallen heroes and the brave ones that survived the conflict for the life of the nation. The number of the Union soldiery grows less from year to year, and may the love and enthusiasm of the Grand Army of the Republic increase from day to day. The principles of our Fraternity are laudable and commendable.

On what patriotic and ennobling principles our Order is founded! Are they not worthy of the support of every surviving Union soldier? Yet there might be added another principle for our Order, namely, that we will endeavor to have a true and correct history of the war for the Union taught to our children. Much is being said in these days about forgiving and forgetting the past deeds of our erring brethren. It is said the mantle of charity should be thrown over their acts of treason, that the past be forgotten and that as great honors should be shown those who wore the grey as for those who wore the blue. Those who wore the grey sought to destroy the Union you fought to sustain. Comrades, in that struggle they were wrong and you were right. Shall the distinction between the Tories of the Revolution and the fathers who fought for an independence be eradicated? Shall the soldiers of Packenham be honored by the American people equally with the soldiers who battled under the leadership of the brave and resolute Jackson? Are the memories of the deeds of the Confederate soldiers who engaged in the unholy cause of the Rebellion to be honored and held in as high esteem as the brave men who gave up their lives for the Union? Is there, I want to ask, to be no difference between the men who were commanded by Jefferson Davis and the men who "marched to the music of the Union" under the leadership of Abraham Lincoln? It seems to me, we are not yet ready to extol with equal honors, the conduct and memories of those who wore the grey with those who wore the blue. Those who wore the grey may have died like brave men—they may have fallen like heroes. I have no doubt many of them did, yet they died for disunion, rebellion and treason. The Union soldier dared to die for our flag, our liberties and our country. They were patriots. I would not have the teachers of our children shade the truth. I would make a difference between the blue and the grey as long as there is a distinction between loyalty and rebellion, between union and disunion, between patriotism and treason, between right and wrong.

The future historian of the late war, will place a higher estimate on your services for our country than does the historian of our day. It will be written that the soldiers who crossed the Rapidan with Grant, and went with him through the Wilderness on to Richmond, shall have as great honor as those who crossed the Delaware with Washington, and greater honor than to have been a Roman soldier and have crossed the Rubicon with Cæsar. Those who marched with Sherman to the sea, or rode with Sheridan up the Shenandoah to Winchester, shall be remembered with the soldiers of the Revolution who fought at Bunker Hill or starved at Valley Forge.

When the old soldiers are assembled in meetings like this, what thoughts are suggested—what memories are recalled! The march, the camp, the battle-field, the hospital, the prison-pen, the roll-call, the missing, the muffled drum—the dead! What shall we now say of the Union dead? Perhaps their spirits are here. May we not say of them,

“On fame's eternal camping-ground
Their silent tents are spread:
And glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead.”

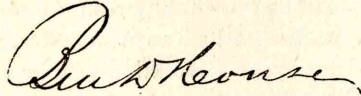

Department Chaplain Whitehead from the special committee appointed at the last Department Encampment, presented on behalf of the Department of Indiana, to retiring Department Commander Carnahan, in a few appropriate words, an elegant gold and jeweled badge in token of appreciation of his services as Commander and the high esteem in which he is held by his Comrades in this Department, which was received and acknowledged by Comrade Carnahan.

Comrades E. D. Wilkins of Illinois, John M. Whitehead, M. D. Manson and others, made short addresses.

Comrade Will Visscher entertained the audience with some humorous recitations. Comrade Whitehead recited “The Flag.”

After a public installation of Department Officers-elect, by Past Department Commander Carnahan, the Encampment was closed.

I CERTIFY, That the foregoing report of the Fifth Annual Encampment of the Department Indiana Grand Army of the Republic, is a correct transcript of the proceedings, as appears by the memoranda kept at such session.

Assistant Adjutant-General.
